CENTRAL THOUGHT OF THIS GREAT PLAY

“If a man says I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen.”

Mr. Charles Rann Kennedy, the author of the play, came from New York to Chicago and, with Mr. Owen, gave this company special preparation and rehearsal, also attended the play's first production on the Chautauquas at Jacksonville, Fla., April 17, 1915, and pronounced it an unqualified success.
